MARBLES.

Ragged, rugged little urchins, playing marbles in the street.
Oftentimes I pause to watch you as you eagerly compete
For the white and colored "commies" trampled in the slush and snow.
And I think about the playmates of the days of long ago.
I remember how my marbles, piled in gay, fantastic heaps,
Sometimes vanished slowly, surely in the dizzy whirl of "keeps,"
And I recollect the rapture that was mine when lucky play
Sent me from the game a winner—not so often, by the way.

One there was who used to capture all the agates in my sack,
Then by dint of careless playing he would always give them back.
Dear old chum, your boyish triumphs marked the end of your success;
As you grew, capricious Fortune e'er denied you her caress.
With a heart too big for scheming and a mind too high for greed,
You departed for a playground where I know you will succeed.
As I watch the noisy youngsters something seems to dim my sight,
And I see you as I saw you when the Reaper won the fight.

Ragged, rugged little urchins, playing marbles in the street,
I am thinking of the journey that awaits your busy feet.
Carefully I scan the features of the winners in the strife,
And I think about the trials in the marble game of life.
You will not for aye be pitted 'gainst the rivals of today.
Frolic for the game is easy—time enough for rougher play.
May the vain regret that smites you when you lose your colored toys
Be the worst that e'er assails you. God be with you, little boys.
—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Three nice little boys had a jolly lot of fun in Union street yesterday. They ran a blind horse into a big rockpile, and when the poor animal fell and was struggling among the rough stones, they laughed as if it was the funniest thing outside a circus. They were nice little boys.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."
Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.
We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

RELIGIOUS DISTURBERS

Lack of Sufficient Evidence to Convict Them Yesterday

Squire Grant had a case of disturbing religious worship in his Court yesterday in which there was not a sufficient amount of evidence to convict the accused, yet there was enough to show there had been a disturbing element present on the Sunday evening complained of as well as other times.

The Squire's Courts have had several cases of similar character here of late where young men were arraigned, charged with the grave offense of annoying and disturbing the preacher and his congregation, and have been lucky enough to escape punishment.

This last case came from Rev. Roseberry's Church in the East End. There was enough brought out to show that there was a lack of respect and decorum, by a few young people, who attended his Church.

Disturbing worship of any kind is a grave offense, and should be condemned by all good citizens, and when found guilty by the Court should receive the full limit of the law.

Fire completely destroyed one of the Portsmouth Brewing Company's buildings yesterday. The loss is $30,000; insurance, $16,000.

THE LEDGER acknowledges the receipt of a copy of "Introductions to Dante's Inferno," from the pen of the Rev. Adolphus T. Ennis, formerly the gifted Pastor of St. Patrick's Church, this city. Father Ennis, who now resides at Nashville, Tenn., has made a life-long study of Dantesque literature, having consulted various original authorities and manuscripts in European Universities, especially in Rome. The book is most attractively printed and can be secured from Richard G. Badger, the Gorham Press, Boston, for $1.25.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Good morning! Have you been out to the Government Morgue?

WHEN Maysville's Public Building is finished, some enterprising citizen may start a 'bus line between the Banks and the Postoffice.

THE LEDGER begs that Congressman KEMOE will register an 18-karat "kick" against locating Maysville's Public Building out of town.

IF "distance lends enchantment to the view," Maysville's Public Morgue will be the most enchanting object within a mile of the city's business district.

It is fortunate that the Maysville Public Building has been located on the Streetcar Line, anyhow. Strangers will be able to ride out into the country to see it.

THE "expansion" plank in the Democratic platform is of itself enough to defeat that ticket. The American people won't stand for a party that advances backwards.

THE Honorable Secretary of the Treasury is most respectfully requested to send a Special Agent to Maysville to view the rural site selected for the proposed Public Building.

WHEN it was inevitable that Judge PARKER would be nominated, Mr. BRYAN left the Convention Hall to escape hearing the announcement. He isn't the only man who dislikes to hear of his downfall.

Experts of corn from the United States during the first nine months of the present fiscal year were 49,593,599 bushels, against 52,656,018 bushels for the same period a year ago.

The Grand Jury will reconvene at Bedford, Ind., July 11th to continue the investigation of the Schaefer murder. The belief now is that the woman was murdered because she had knowledge of a secret that would incriminate a person of prominence if divulged.

A CONTINUAL STRAIN.
Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. Sold by Henry W. Ray, Post-office Druggist.

THE design for the proposed Government Building was mistaken by one citizen as a design for a Morgue.

IF Maysville's Public Building is erected on the site selected by Mr. WINDOM,—after a residence of some twelve hours in the city,—the Postmaster General should be petitioned to establish a Rural Route between the Business Houses and the Postoffice.

Political Pickings

IS IT PROVIDENCE?

Winchester Sun-Sentinel.

On the streets of Covington William Goebel, after provoking a quarrel, shot and killed John Sanford. The killing was not justifiable, but Goebel escaped punishment. He forced his nomination for Governor, depriving other Democrats of their rights, but he was defeated at the polls. He then instituted a contest before a partisan Legislature and during that contest was assassinated by some one individual. In order to make political capital, Governor Taylor, Caleb Powers, James Howard and others who are innocent, were indicted on perjured testimony. In the trials that followed T. C. Campbell, an imported lawyer, was relentless in his prosecution, which amounted to persecution. Later Campbell was on a cruise in the Atlantic Ocean, and was shipwrecked on an island, where he was maltreated by pirates, robbed of his clothing and suffered with cold and hunger. He died from the effects of the exposure the evening that he was brought to New York.

"If it had not been for my decisions there would not be a Democratic state official at Frankfort."

The trials of those indicted were partisan trials. Partisan Jurors rendered the verdicts in Judge Cantrill's Court. Innocent men are under conviction. Strange things occur.

The splendid residence of Judge Cantrill at Georgetown accidentally caught fire and was burned, and now he is a paralytic on a bed of suffering.

We don't know about the ways of Providence. They are mysterious and past finding out. God forbid that any of us should be vindictive or cruel. No true hearted man or woman will rejoice in the suffering of a human being. Good men meet with misfortune. Pure motives may have prompted William Goebel to kill John Sanford. We don't know. A sense of duty may have made T. C. Campbell do what he did. We don't know. A high sense of honor may have been the moving power in all that Judge Cantrill has done. We don't know.

Another lesson might be drawn from the witness and from some of the jurors. We are not overly religious, nor are we superstitious, but in one way and another things occur that causes us to believe that there is a power above that rules our destinies.

Paris Green That Kills.

Many imagine that all Paris Green is of equal potency. This is not the case. Analysis of samples from various makers shows that some have more than twice the strength of others. You have perhaps observed evidence of this in the failure of an application of Paris Green to your tobacco plants to rid them of worms as it should. We guarantee the strength and effectiveness of the Paris Green we sell. The manufacturers have a reputation for the high and uniform excellence of their product. There's economy in using this Paris Green; it goes farther and always does the work.

An atrocious murder was brought to light in the village of Webster, ten miles from Rochester, N. Y., when the body of Miss Cora B. Hart, strangled to death, was discovered in the cellar of Hallauer's packing house. The Sheriff's office since Friday has been investigating a mysterious fire in this building, which, it now appears, was to cover up the evidence of murder.

Suspecting his wife of loving another, John Hillenbrand, a glassblower, of Covington, tracked her to lower Greenup street in the rear of the Workhouse Monday afternoon, saw her meet her paramour, Dennis Eagan, and shot her dead. The shooting occurred within a stone's throw of Police Headquarters. He told the police he aimed at Eagan, but his wife jumped in front of him.

A furious wind and thunder storm struck St. Louis shortly after 3 p. m. yesterday and raged for about an hour. Damage to buildings is reported from all sections of the city, but no loss of life is yet reported. Residents of the city were panic-stricken, fearing a repetition of the awful cyclone of 1896. The wind blew over sixty miles an hour, blowing in plate-glass fronts, hurling awnings through the air and overturning wagons in the street. Hailstones of immense size fell. Considerable damage was done at the World's Fair.

The Liao Yang correspondent of the newspaper Novosti reports that the Japanese advance column has appeared on the main road to Mukden. If authentic, this indicates that the retreat of General Kuropatkin from Liao Yang has been cut off. This may be taken as partial confirmation of a Rome cablegram as follows: "A dispatch from Liao Yang says that a fierce battle has been fought at Hoang, near Liao Yang, between a force of Russians numbering 4,000, and led by General Keller, and a supposedly superior number of the enemy. Although the Russians struggled valiantly, they were compelled to retreat before the determined assaults by the Japanese, and left 350 dead upon the field. The Japanese showed great bravery. The battle ended in a complete rout of the Russians. The loss by the Japanese is unknown."

France easily holds first place in the manufacture of automobiles, and its record of exports shows that the craze is still spreading over the world. In 1901 the value of these machines exported was $3,000,000; in 1902 $6,000,000; in 1903, $10,000,000.

United States Consul W. E. Alger of Porto Cortes, Honduras, under date of March 17th, 1904, calls attention to a coal deposit in Las Mogotes that assays 95% of combustible matter, which the owners are desirous of exploiting. They would like to enter into negotiations with a foreign company.

With the protection of a stable government, and equal rights and privileges with local capital, the amount of foreign capital which will be invested in Mexico in the next few years will be large, and for geographical and other reasons the larger part of this foreign investment will be American.

Dredging for gold in the sands of Clear Creek, in the vicinity of Golden, Col., is one of the latest enterprises to attract the attention of the mining world. Chicago capitalists have prepared to spend close to $1,000,000 in the development of their plans, and already have begun building the monster dredges required in the work.

Ackley, Ia., has the champion egg eater of the United States. George Richardson, a stock buyer of that city, has an appetite for hen fruit that is not satisfied by the usual allotment as he demonstrated when he ate sixty-one in twenty minutes in the presence of witnesses. Richardson thinks nothing of eating two dozen at one sitting, and experiences no inconvenience from the unusual number. About a week ago he ate fifty eggs on a bet of $5, and offered to bet a dollar he could eat two dozen more.

The body of a man was found floating in the Ohio river at Wellsburg yesterday by George Leslie, who was rowing across the river. The man was about 35 years old, with dark hair and black mustache. He weighed about 150 pounds. In the pockets were found fifty-five beer checks from various Cincinnati saloons. The body was buried on the beach pending identification.

The Cincinnati Conservatory of Music gave its first summer school recital last Saturday night and in which Miss Lelia Wheeler, formerly of this city, one of Miss Bauer's graduates, took a leading part.

In speaking of the Concert The Enquirer says: "Miss Wheeler possesses a powerful soprano voice of fine quality and sings with ease and brilliancy. She has been engaged as vocal instructor at Wesleyan Female College at Macon, Ga. Miss Wheeler's friends in this city are gratified at her steady advancement in her chosen calling."

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband should be a woman's constant study. If she would be all that she may, she must guard well against the signs of ill health. Mrs. Brown tells her story for the benefit of all wives and mothers.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will make every mother well, strong, healthy and happy. I dragged through nine years of miserable existence, worn out with pain and weariness. I then noticed a statement of a woman troubled as I was; and the wonderful results she had had from your Vegetable Compound, and decided to try what it would do for me, and used it for three months. At the end of that time, I was a different woman, the neighbors remarked it, and my husband fell in love with me all over again. It seemed like a new existence. I had been suffering with inflammation and falling of the womb, but your medicine cured that, and built up my entire system, till I was indeed like a new woman.—Sincerely yours, Mrs. CHAS. F. BROWN, 21 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark., Vice President Mothers Club.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Intoxicants affect men in various ways. When a Frenchman has drunk too much he wants to dance, a German to sing, a Spaniard to gamble, an Englishman to eat, an Italian to boast, an Irishman to fight and an American to make a speech.

Statistics of the world's best sugar crop for the last season do not show the substantial reduction in acreage which was anticipated when bounties were abolished through the Brussels conference. The yield is 5,910,000 long tons of sugar, a falling off of 7%, therefore, the production is still greatly in excess of the demand.

Lots More Proof Like This, and It Is All From Maysville People

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it." If any city or town in the Union has sufficient proof on the following subject it is Maysville. Genuine merit is finding its reward in the hearty indorsement of local citizens. When people right here at home, friends and neighbors of our readers, give a statement like the following for publication it is proof convincing for the most skeptical. Read this testimony:

Mr. A. W. McClanahan of 119 West Second street says:

"The use in my case fully demonstrated the value of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered more or less from kidney trouble for twenty years, steadily becoming more persistent as time passed on. My attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. The treatment so greatly benefited me that my only regret is that I did not know of this valuable remedy years ago, for had such been the case I would have been saved much suffering."

Forsale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
